CHINA REVOLT ENDS

IRONSIDE COMMANDER'S RESIGNATION

LED ASTRAY

Kwangsi Clique Let Down By "Broken Reed"

POWER CRUMBLING

General Chang Fa-kuei, commander of the 4th Division of the Nationalist Army (the "Ironsides"), is announced in a telegram to have resigned, thereby leading to the end of his revolt against the National Government. Simultaneously, the opposition shown by the extremist faction in Kwangsi is also announced to have crumbled, thereby leading to the complete resumption of authority by the central authorities in Nanking.

MARTYRED LEADER OF YORE

The "number two" of the Ironsides has sent a message to a political friend in Nanking, the pathos and classical style of which is common to such occasions. This "number two" indicates that his commander (Chang Fa-kuei) has been led astray, but "all ranks of the 4th division, ever-mindful of their countless victories in the anti-North and anti-Communist campaigns, and inspired by the memory of their martyred leader of yore, will not endanger their reputation and will, accordingly, continue to obey."

(The "martyr" referred to is General Tang Hang, after whom one of the gunboats built by Messrs. W. S. Bailey in Hong Kong for the Canton Government was named. He commanded the most famous Division of the Revolutionary Army in its palmy days. Among his subordinates and associates are many of the leading Generals of China during the last three years. All such "claim descent" and inspiration from Tang Hang, who was assassinated.)

More Trouble Likely

It is, therefore, predicted that there will be no more trouble from the Ironsides in Human province.

In Kwangsi, General Yu Tsok-pak (the extremist Governor) has been forced by his erstwhile supporters to resign and is stated to be leaving the province. General Li Ming-shui, on whom suspicion has fallen, has been dismissed. General Lui Woonyim (the new Governor) and General Yeung Tang-fai share the offices of Yu Tsok-pak and Li Ming-shui.

Li Ming-shui proved a broken reed to his former benefactors, the old Kwangsi clique. He betrayed the cause to Marshal Chiang Kai-shek and, in reward, was transferred to Kwangsi. After a few months, he has been turned down again. Strange to say, the two men who were mixed up with Li Ming-shui when he returned to Canton have now gone different ways. One is the ex-Governor, General Yu Tsok-pak, and the other is General Yeung Tang-fai (already referred to) who chooses to support the National Government.

Determined To Fight

Here, then, is another episode in Chinese politics unexplainable to the average foreigner. But latest information indicates that there may be a little warfare.

Li Ming-shui declares he will not give up without a fight. His men are reported to be taking up positions for defence. The new Governor's units are moving up against them.

General Chan Chai-tung, Commander-in-Chief of Kwangtung and Kwangsi, should have arrived at Wuchow to-day (the "port" of Kwangsi, on the West River) having set out from Canton by train, and then by gunboat, and it is anticipated that the Cantonese forces will take some part in the campaign (if there is one) against the Kwangsi extremists.

The Money Market

Meanwhile the general outlook has improved. Although the Canton Government still looks askance at its own note issue (the while building up a substantial reserve coin in order to meet any emergency) the public still reposes confidence in the money market and in the administration, and Chinese merchants of Kwangtung appear to be confident that they will not be involved in war.

Wuchow Trouble

Some troops and gunboats have arrived at Wuchow from down river. Lui Hoon-in has stated that troops will be despatched against Yu Tsok-pak. — British Naval Wireless.

DELUSION

OVERDOSE OF MEDICINE THAT INDUCED SLEEP

SEMI-CONSCIOUS CONDITION

Three Chinese men between the ages of 20 and 24 in no way connected with one another were found at about the same hour yesterday to have attempted suicide in exactly the same manner, by taking (what constituted in their individual opinions) an overdose of "a medicine to induce sleep."

One was a military man from Canton, who occupied a room in the Hong On boarding house and, when the staff attempted to wake him for breakfast, found him in a semi-conscious condition. He was despatched to hospital in an ambulance. Another man was a native of Hupeh province. He lived in a room in the Ming Lee boarding house.

The third man was a Cantonese living in Wanchai and has a brother who is a Police Constable. All three have recovered after treatment.

DRAFTS FOR FLEET

ROYAL NAVY DETACHMENTS FROM HOME

Two of the old-type cruisers (of 37,500 tons each) are in harbour to-day, having arrived from Home with drafts for the China Station. They are H.M.S. "Cambridge" and "Cleopatra". The 4th Submarine Flotilla (comprising H.M.S. "Titanic", "Marston", H.M.S. "L3", "L15", "L19", "L20", "L27", "L33") are the ships concerned. A portion of the completion of each unit is going Home and will be replaced by the new arrivals.

Other Naval ships in port this morning were H.M.S. "Tamar" (receiving ship), "Berwick" (cruiser), and H.M.S. "Tarantula" (West River gunboat).

NEWSPAPER IN TROUBLE

Yeung Kau-kong, publisher of the Chinese newspaper, "Hoi Sam Cho Po" was summoned before Mr. A. W. G. H. Grantham, at the Central Magistracy, to-day for publishing indecent matter which had not been submitted to the Secretary for Chinese Affairs. On the application of Detective Sub-Inspector Carey, who said that a summons was also being taken out against the printer of the newspaper, the case was adjourned until Friday.

K.O.S.B. PRIVATES IN COURT

WOMAN'S EVIDENCE

"THROWN TO THE OTHER SIDE OF THE STREET"

ANCIENT OATH DECLINED

Chan Lai-sze (60), the injured Chinese woman, gave evidence before Mr. E. W. Hamilton, at the Central Magistracy, to-day, when the hearing was resumed, of the case in which Privates Thomas McEwen and Harry Shea, of the King's Own Scottish Borderers, are charged as follows:—

- (1) that they on Friday, August 30, at Shelley-street, assaulted a Chinese woman named Chan Lai-sze (60), causing her bodily harm; and
- (2) that they on the same evening, at or near Lyndhurst-terrace, assaulted a Chinese man named Tze Tim.

The woman was again brought into Court in a sedan chair. Her left leg, which was fractured in two places, was bandaged; and her medical adviser, Dr. Tseng, was in attendance.

The Daughter Disappears Inside

Replying to the Magistrate, Chan Lai-sze said that on the evening of August 30, she was sitting with her daughter and a fook on the pavement just outside the door of her house. Suddenly her daughter said something to her which she did not catch, however, on account of deafness. Immediately afterward her daughter jumped up and ran inside.

She (the witness) was about to get up also when she saw two British soldiers, who were already upon her. They each seized her by an arm and threw her across to the side channel on the other side of the street. Then she lost consciousness.

Magistrate: You are a heavy woman, how did they manage to throw you as far as that?—I must have been lighter at the time through great fright.

Answering other questions, the witness said that she could not say if only one of the soldiers, of both, threw her. She fell forward and hit the kerb on the other side of the street with her head.

His Worship: Do you realise that an accusation like this is very serious for these two men, if they get convicted?—Yes.

Therefore, are you prepared to say "If all I say is not the truth, I wish that I and my family will perish"? I prefer not to take such an oath. It is a very old form of oath, and you have nothing to fear if you are convinced that you have spoken the truth.—I prefer not to take it and will leave the decision of this case entirely in your Worship's hands.

Replying to a final question, witness said that she did not know what happened after she fell.

Cross-Examination. Opening his cross-examination, Mr. D. L. Strellett (representing Shea), told the woman that he and both the soldiers were very sorry that she had suffered this injury, especially as in his (Mr. Strellett's) opinion she got her injury because of these two soldiers.

Mr. Hamilton interposed to say that the only Chinese translation he knew for that statement would amount to an admission of responsibility for the injury.

Mr. Strellett modified his statement, saying that the woman received her injury on account of the soldiers being on the road.

Mr. Hamilton: Ah, that's better! The witness agreed that she was very frightened at the appearance of the soldiers. She did not notice them until they were only a few paces from her, actually getting on to the pavement. She jumped up, but did not move from where she was, being too frightened to do so. As she got up she was seized by the soldiers.

Mr. Strellett: You got up with the intention of going across the street to your step-daughter?—No, I was so frightened I did not know where to go, or what to do.

Now you realise that you ended up where your step-daughter was standing?—Yes, I was thrown and fell in the channel just outside her door.

Shaking With Terror. Are you sure you did not make your way there?—No, I was shaking with terror when the soldiers seized me; then I was thrown.

Mr. Strellett asked if, after she had got up from the stool, she did not take a single step forward? Witness: No, I was too frightened to move. Asked if the soldiers took any steps forward after, taking her, she said that they did not. She was thrown from where she stood. As soon as the soldiers got on the pavement

BERLIN MOURNS

SCENES AT FUNERAL OF DR. STRESEMANN

GARLANDS OF IVY

Berlin, Yesterday. Walls and lamps at the Reichstag were draped in black and hung with garlands of ivy and alpine violets on the occasion of the final honours rendered to Dr. Gustav Stresemann. The coffin was covered with a huge Republican flag, which, with a candle burning at each side, and surrounded with masses of wreaths, occupied a prominent position. Diplomats were fully uniformed and only the extreme Nationalists and Communists were absent from the solemn proceedings. Everybody rose as the widow and her two sons accompanied by President Hindenburg, entered to the strains of Beethoven's funeral march, played by the Berlin Philharmonic Orchestra.

Chancellor Mueller in a funeral oration, dwelt on the great part the deceased Statesman had played in the rehabilitation of Germany among the nations.

The orchestra played the funeral march from the Eroica Symphony as policemen bore out the coffin to the statue of Bismarck, where it was placed on an open hearse, while an aeroplane carrying mourning streamers roared overhead.

President Hindenburg followed the cortege part of the way to the cemetery along the thickly lined route.

The British Ambassador occupied a prominent position on special instructions to attend as a personal representative of the King.—Reuter.

NEW IRAQ POST

SIR FRANCIS HUMPHREYS TO BE COMMISSIONER

SUCCEEDS SIR G. CLAYTON

London, Yesterday. Sir Francis Humphreys has been appointed High Commissioner of Iraq in succession to the late Sir Gilbert Clayton.—Reuter.

Lieut. Col. Sir Francis Henry Humphreys, K.B.E., R.E.M., First Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary at the Court of H.M. the King of Afghanistan in 1922, was born in 1879, and educated at Shrewsbury and Oxford. He served in the South African War, and entered the Political Department of the Government of India in 1903, being appointed Private Secretary to the Chief Commissioner, N.W.F.P., in 1904. Later he became an Assistant Commissioner at Hazara and in 1914 acted as a Political Agent on the N.W. Frontier, serving in the European War as an R.A.F. pilot. In 1919 he was again a Political Agent in Khyber, and two years later was appointed Deputy Foreign Secretary to the Govt. of India.

ment they seized her. She did not hear these speak to each other before they seized her.

Mr. Strellett: So it looks as if it was pre-arranged that they were going to do you?—I can't say.

Witness was unable to say whether the soldiers each used two hands to seize her, or whether they lifted her off her feet before throwing her. "I was very frightened." She was certain, however, that each soldier had one hand under one of her shoulders.

Mr. Strellett then returned to the question as to whether any step forward had been taken by either the witness or the soldiers before they were "pushed." He asked the question in several different forms, and always received the same negative answer.

Exhausting the Witness

Then his Worship interposed to tell Mr. Strellett that he had been putting the same question to the witness for a quarter of an hour, and was reducing her to a state of exhaustion. It was not fair on the old woman, and he (the Magistrate) must adjourn to give her a rest. His Worship concluded: "You have made no progress for the last 12 minutes; at least."

Mr. Strellett said that it was because he and the witness did not agree that he had repeated the question to make absolutely sure that she understood it.

Mr. Hamilton remarked that she had answered "No" every time, and looking at the Court clock, which showed that the time was 12.23. His Worship said: "I will give you until 12.30, and then adjourn."

Not Considered Fair. Mr. Strellett continued to pursue the point, and Mr. Hamilton again interposed. He said that if Mr. Strellett was going to exhaust the witness in this way, he (Mr. Hamilton) would adjourn the case and keep remanding Mr. Strellett's client from week to week.

"It is not fair, considering her state, to put questions over and over again on exactly the same point after the witness has given a perfectly good answer. You must keep your cross-examination within a few minutes." The case was then adjourned until 2.30 p.m.

INTRUDER SENT TO HOSPITAL AFTER FIGHT

A POSSIBLE ACCOMPLICE

In a report to the Police yesterday, a Chinese named Charles F. Chan, living at No. 558, Nathan-road, Kowloon, stated that at 4.45 a.m., yesterday he was awakened by a slight noise in his room and found that a man had entered by the open kitchen door and was searching the place. He jumped out of bed and a struggle with the intruder ensued.

Chan had the better of the scuffle and the intruder was overpowered after he had been severely injured about the face. A Policeman was

ESPIONAGE TRIAL

DISTINGUISHED SCHOLAR GETS HARD LABOUR

ANGRY SCENES

Prague, Yesterday. The two-months' long espionage trial has ended. Professor Tuka, the distinguished scholar and member of Parliament, Leader of the Slovak Home Rule Party, was sentenced to 15 years' hard labour for allegedly maintaining an espionage bureau on behalf of Hungary. The trial is likely to have political repercussions. Ten thousand people who waited for the result rushed into the court room, had to be dispersed by baton charges.—Reuter.

GENERAL WRANGEL

RUSSIAN EMIGRES ATTEND FUNERAL

FINAL BURIAL

Belgrade, To-day.

Between 30,000 and 40,000 Russian emigres lined the streets to pay their last tribute to General Wrangel, whose remains were brought from Uccle cemetery, near Brussels, for final burial here.—Reuter.

TRAFFIC OFFENCES

A few traffic offenders appeared before Mr. T. S. Whyte-Smith at the Kowloon Magistracy to-day. A fine of $1 was imposed on a Chinese for riding on the wrong side of Pel Ho Street.

For riding his bicycle without a light at Tai Kok Teui at 7.45 p.m., a Chinese was fined $2.

Three dollars was the fine imposed on a Chinese for pulling a public vehicle without a licence. Another who had two lights in the cell was cautioned for a similar offence.

"RED" PAMPHLETS

GIRL CHARGED WITH UNLAWFUL POSSESSION

AN INNOCENT CATPAW?

At the Central Magistracy, before Mr. E. W. Hamilton, on Saturday, the bobbed-haired 17-year-old Chinese girl, who is charged with the unlawful possession, at Saiwan-ho, of seditious literature, gave evidence in her own defence.

She said that she was not aware of the contents of a certain basket which she was carrying. A man, whose name she gave, had asked her to take his basket and he in turn had offered to carry a basket which she had. It was not until she was arrested that it dawned on her that she had been tricked.

In his address for the defence, Mr. A. el Arculli said that although he realised the onus was on him to prove that the contents of the basket were unknown to the girl, yet the case as a whole was not as strong against her as it looked.

He pointed out that the girl had adhered to the same story throughout, and referred to various contents in the basket which bore out the girl's story that she had been shopping.

An important matter for consideration was that the documents were not propaganda against the Colony at all, but against the Kwangtung Government.

The defendant's age was another factor which Mr. el Arculli asked the Magistrate to consider. To send her to prison might be to make a criminal of her.

Mr. Hamilton said he was satisfied that the defendant was guilty of possession of seditious pamphlets and if she chose to distribute the pamphlets to men at Tai Kok, she had to take the consequences. Sentence was postponed until Oct. 9.

EARL HAREWOOD

DIES AFTER GRAVE ILLNESS

London, To-day.

Earl Harewood died this morning.—Reuter.

[An earlier message said: Earl Harewood is gravely ill and the family have been hurriedly summoned to his bedside at Harewood House.]

Princess Mary

London, Yesterday.

Princess Mary now becomes Princess Mary, Countess of Harewood. She was at her country home in Yorkshire when her father-in-law died. Her husband was at his father's bedside.—Reuter.

[The Earl of Harewood is the father of Viscount Lascelles, who in 1922 married H.R.H. Princess Mary. He was at one time a Captain of Grenadier Guards and from 1904 to 1927 was a Lieutenant for West Riding, Yorkshire. In 1878 he was attached to a special mission to Spain.]

ACID FOR CANTON

POISON INTENDED FOR POLISHING

DANGEROUS GOODS

Two Chinese, one a boy, appeared before Mr. T. S. Whyte-Smith at the Kowloon Magistracy, this morning charged with carrying a bottle of nitric acid and a bottle of muriatic acid, respectively.

In pleading guilty accused stated that Chinese labels marked "poison" were on each bottle, but they came off. His Worship pointed out that nitric acid was not marked in the section under which accused were charged.

Inspector Hoare replied that acid was in the "Dangerous Goods" section of the Police Regulations.

His Worship: What were you going to do with it?

First accused: Take it to Canton, and use it for polishing metal. I am a travelling trader on the S.S. "Sai On." His Worship fined the first accused $10, and cautioned the boy.

ALLEGED KIDNAPPING

To-day, Ng Tang, charged with kidnapping a Chinese boy of nine years of age from his mother and stepfather at 216, Portland-street, made another appearance at the Kowloon Magistracy before Mr. T. S. Whyte-Smith.

Sub-Inspector James intimated that the complainants, who had been given ample time, had not come to Court yet, and that there were no further witnesses.

His Worship, pointing out that the case was a serious one, recommended it to Saturday morning.

CLUB DE RECREIO'S FINE WIN

BEAT SHANGHAI

SPLENDID DISPLAY BY SKIP LUZ

CHEERED BY CROWD

FORTUNES FLUCTUATE

By ("Short Head")

Yesterday, at King's Park, the Club de Recreio had the satisfaction of defeating the Shanghai lawn bowls players by one shot, thus setting the seal, in a sense, on the wonderful progress they have made in the game during only a couple of years. With the "big game" behind them it may have appeared that Shanghai did not exert themselves to the utmost—but the contrary was the case for they played throughout as if something great was at stake. And they had three of the interport match players fighting for them.

First Blood for Recreio. In the first head Souza trailed the jack and was not shifted, and later Ribeiro sent in a nice one behind the jack and the Recreio lay a couple.

A good struggle was witnessed on the second head, first one side and then the other lying near the jack. Luz looked as if he had put the issue beyond doubt with a splendid draw, but Dorrance went one better and one shot was chalked on the board for Shanghai.

Glover in the third head sent up a couple of nice ones and was undisturbed until Luz got shot with his second wood.

Souza got a touch with his first wood and put his second a couple of feet through. Souza lay third, but eventually Dorrance saved one.

Trio for Shanghai. Good shots by both Glover and Phillips laid the foundation of a good head from the visitors' point of view. Luz got third place with his first wood and then trailed the jack a bit with the bad luck not to improve his own position. Shanghai counted three.

Both Glover and Silva had touchers, but the latter went behind. Dorrance got a wick for the shot, and Luz had to be content with lying-second wood.

Glover again got chalk but Phillips sent in a perfect beauty, only to see Ribeiro get a wick for the shot. Dorrance, however, came into the picture with a nice one and Shanghai scored a unit.

Dorrance Again. There was "little of interest" in the eighth head, until Dorrance got wood, Luz having hard luck with a shot—a fine one—with his second drive.

In the next head the leaders were shy and it was left to Phillips and Jessiman to show the way to the jack, the visitors scoring a couple and making the score 9—5 in their favour.

Silva rested on the jack in the tenth head and Souza rolled into second place. Phillips trailed the jack and gave his team four, following which Jessiman got shot. This good work was undone by Luz who trailed amid applause. One for Recreio.

'Some Good Play'. Silva got a touch, but was dispossessed by Glover. Phillips lay a lovely second. Ribeiro, however, robbed the visitors and Luz rested on the jack with a perfect little beauty. Dorrance reversed the position with his second wood; Shanghai getting a couple instead of the Recreio.

Play in the twelfth head was quieter, and after Ribeiro trailed and lay with his second wood he was undisturbed.

The leaders were poorer than usual in the next head. Souza lay but was nearly rested out by Phillips, and it was left to Ribeiro to send up the winning wood. Two for Recreio.

Another Last-Wood Effort. Glover trailed with his second wood and lay a couple, but Souza went just through and made it a measure. Jessiman got into a handy place, and a splendid shot by Dorrance with his last wood gave his side a couple. Score: 13—9.

Phillips in the next head had a touch and with a wick counted two. One of his bowls was knocked out by Souza and then Jessiman drew the shot. Luz came away finely with his second wood and the Recreio counted one.

Play was now getting very keen, both teams showing excellent form. The Recreio early got in four only to be robbed of the lot by Phillips. Luz drew one right on the jack and followed this up with another beauty. Score: 13—12.

LEAGUE FOOTBALL

The visitors went further ahead almost immediately, Alexander scoring a really fine goal after a clever individual run. St. Josephs never lost heart and kept pegging away in the face of determined opposition. Their efforts were unavailing, however, and the Borderers added a fourth point when Everest completed his hat-trick with a nice shot. In the last few minutes of the game the Borderers were awarded a penalty, but Everest shot right at Rocha, who effected a smart clearance.

Result:—St. Josephs 0; K.O.S.B. 4.

SOMERSETS v. NAVY

Played at Kowloon F. C. Ground before a fair crowd of spectators, who watched some brilliant football, the Somerset defeated the Navy by five clear goals. The teams lined up as under:

Somersets:—Hall; Crawley and Hayward; Cornelius, Mead and Harris; Palmer, Guest, Rayson, Bewley-Bull and Butcher.

Navy:—Wright; Pompey and Nixon; Churchouse, Perris and Deakin; Egan, Kernick, Foote, Evans and Dickson.

Referee: Mr. MacKie.

An Exciting Game

Rayson set the ball in motion for what proved to be a very fast and exciting game. Almost immediately Bewley-Bull sent a beautiful low shot across the goal mouth, but none of his confederates got to the ball to complete the trick. Play continued very fast for about 10 minutes from one goal to the other, both custodians being called upon to save stiff shots. Bewley-Bull then drew first blood with a header after some pretty combination play by Rayson and Butcher. A few minutes afterwards Hall saved from Foote at the expense of a corner, which, however, was cleared without damage; a free kick later proved uneventful for the Navy, when Perris put over the bar from just outside the penalty area. A succession of flag kicks kept the Navy worried, but Wright lost to the occasion and kept the citadel clear of any more goals until the half time whistle gave the players a well earned respite.

Half time:—Somerset L. Infantry 1, Navy 0.

The Change Over

Changing over the Somersets were on the aggressive and in a very short time Rayson succeeded in beating Wright. Immediately afterwards Wright was called on to save from Butcher and Guest closed up. Nothing daunted the Somersets had another try; this time Rayson made no mistake. The Navy strove hard to score but their finishing touches were very weak and the Somersets were soon attacking again and a centre from Palmer to Butcher missed the goal by inches. The best solo effort of the game was now witnessed when Butcher ran through and scored with a beautifully timed shot. Nor was this to be the last as only a few minutes afterwards Butcher took a shot almost from the flag which was really the best goal of the game. Hardly had the ball been set in motion again ere the referee blew the final whistle.

Result:—Somerset L. Infantry 5, Navy 0.

Comment

In the first half the Navy got a fair percentage of the game and were unlucky not to have the odd goal lead, but in the second half they failed completely and would have been a few more goals down had it not been for the hardworking defence, particularly Wright. The Somersets played if anything faster in the second half and combined well. The only incident to mar the game was when Rayson retired for about ten minutes with a nasty cut on the knee.

Result:—Somerset Light Infantry 5, Navy 0.

ROYAL ARTILLERY BEAT POLICE

The R.A. were at home to the Police at Sookumpoo on Saturday and a very hard fought and interesting game was won by the Gunners by 4 goals to 2. It was a very even game throughout, and the R.A. owed their victory to the cleverness of their forwards who combined well.

The Police were without Clarke, who is at present on home leave—Swann (an "old" interporter) filling his place in goal.

Teams:—Royal Artillery:—Fletcher; Oliver, Rawlings; Gardiner, Taylor, Joyce; Cotton, Gill, Allan, Walker, Whitehall.

Police:—Swann; Wynne, Sherry; Johnson, Hudson, Jessop; McEwan, Fraser, McCreavy, Valentine, Howarth.

The Game

The opening stages were in favour of the R.A. who from the kick-off forced a corner on the left, the Police backs relieving. Shortly following this Gill brought Swann to his knees with a nasty shot. Play was transferred to the other end where the Police were awarded a free kick about 30 yards out. Hudson took the kick, and Fletcher punched the ball out to the feet of Valentine, who drove in a fine low shot that found the net. The Gunners strove hard to get on level terms and the Police defence had a busy time keeping them out. The play up to this stage was very even with both teams attacking and defending in turn. Allan had hard luck with a fine drive that just went over, and immediately following this Gill missed a good opportunity when close in, he miskicked. The Gunners never relaxed in their determined raids on the visitors' goal and after Allan and Walker had both tested Swann with teasers Gill put his side on equal terms with a fine drive that Swann just failed to reach. From the kick-off a ding-dong game ensued with both teams striving their utmost to take the lead. Valentine just missed with a good effort and at the other end Allan was unfortunate with a nice shot that just went wide. Following this Gill hit the upright with a terrific drive. The interval whistle came without further scoring after a very interesting first half, in which the R.A. were slightly the better side.

Half time:—Royal Artillery 1; Police 1.

A Clever Movement

The second half opened with the Police attacking, and Fletcher was called upon to save in quick succession from Fraser and McCreavy. At the other end Allan drove in a fine shot which just went over. For the Police, Hudson was playing a very sound game and was the means of spoiling many a clever movement on the part of the R.A. forwards. The Police got going on the left and Fraser centred for Valentine to again "give" his side the lead with a well placed shot that gave Fletcher no chance. The Gunners, not to be disheartened by this reverse, strove hard and their efforts were rewarded when Allan beat Swann with a fine drive. Immediately following this the R.A. took the lead through Gill who scored a magnificent goal from a free kick. From now onwards the R.A. were on top and the Police were forced to play on the defensive. They occasionally broke away, however, and came within an ace of equalising more than once. Just before the final whistle went Allan put the Artillery further ahead with a clever shot, which decided the issue.

Result:—Royal Artillery 4; Police 2.

Division II.

K.O.S.B. AND NAVY RUN RIOT

The Hong Kong Club Reserves made a good impression in their opening League fixture on Saturday by winning an interesting contest by the odd goal in five. Their victory was on the whole thoroughly deserved, the South China team being slow to take advantage of their openings, while the Club forwards were always keen to pursue every possible advantage. Smith opened the scoring for the home team ten minutes from the start, after which they were kept on the defensive for a time. Forwill and Holmes distinguished themselves highly. Lau Mau eventually got through to score the equaliser, the teams crossing over on level terms.

Club quickly took the lead after the change of ends, Wilson being responsible for a smart goal. A further point, scored when Alexander, whose play throughout was of a high order, got through. A second point for South China, scored by Lau Mau, completed the scoring. On this visiting side Li Tin-sang, Lau Mau and Lai Kong-hee were the only players to greatly impress.

CHINESE "B" v. R.A.M.C.

Although losing by four goals to one the R.A.M.C. team were by no means disgraced in their opening match in Division II of the League. The whole team, in fact, showed definite promise of becoming a force to be reckoned with, and it will be surprising if they do not make good with a little more experience. Opening exchanges slightly favoured the Medicals, Elliott, Gosling, and Wake being in fine form in the forward line, while the defence repeatedly broke up the Chinese attacks in convincing style. The home forwards missed many openings however, the shooting being terribly inaccurate. Nothing was scored up to the interval, McGowan getting through some fine work in the R.A.M.C. goal. The Chinese team were soon successful after the change of ends, Leung Tat-wing scoring a pretty goal, while a few minutes later Dodson had the bad luck to put the ball through his own goal under heavy pressure. The Medicals fought back with vigour and reduced the deficit through Wake. Towards the close, however, they tired perceptibly, and further points by Leung Tat-wing and Lo Chai-wan put the issue out of all doubt.

Result:—Chinese "B" 4; R.A.M.C. 1.

NAVY v. ST. JOSEPHS

Although playing a man short throughout, the Navy were able to inflict a most convincing defeat upon the St. Josephs' second string at Happy Valley.

The teams were:—Navy:—Clarke, Spratling, Ward (absent); Mellet, Jones, Charlton; Clarke, Sorbie, Goodridge, Fleming and Lee.

St. Josephs:—O. Omar; Souza, Harvey; K. Omar, Reed, M. Omar; McGrann, Gutierrez, Castilho, Minu and Wee Iau Tong.

A Lighter Side

The Navy quickly showed their superiority over much lighter team and proceeded to dominate the play. St. Josephs managed to keep their goal intact, however, until midway of the opening half, when Clarke found the net with a cross shot. An occasional spurt by St. Josephs looked threatening, but Clarke in the Navy goal was rarely called upon. Goodridge and Sorbie added goals for the winners before the interval.

There was no lack of goals after the change over, Sorbie quickly adding a fourth point for the Navy, while St. Josephs opened their account when Clarke had the misfortune to put the sphere into his own goal. Lee and Goodridge made the Navy total up to six, while Castilho got through for St. Josephs just on time.

Result:—Navy 6; St. Josephs 2.

EASTERN v. K.O.S.B.

Played on the St. Josephs ground this match produced the highest score of the afternoon, the Borderers netting no less than seven times, whilst Eastern were only able to reply once. The teams were:—

Eastern:—D. Silva; Lau Ching-lau; Chung Lap-fan; Ng Ging-kay, Cheung Yui-nam, Fung Yui-wai, Lee Bing-tong, Chu Bing-fai, Dallah, Sabhan and Lai Ting-choy.

K.O.S.B.:—McDougal; Martin, Martin, Barham, Spence, Stewart; Cook, Stevens, Goggie, Mulligan and Wylie.

The First Goal

The Borderers took complete control of the game from the start but the Eastern defence stood firm for some time and their goal was only perched once during the opening half, Geggie being the scorer.

After the change of ends Eastern appeared quite unable to stop the rot, and the Borderers showed a perfect lust for goals. Geggie, who played a masterly game at centre forward, scored three more points in quick succession, and Stevens added the fifth before Eastern were able to make their solitary reply. This was in every respect the best goal of the match, Sabhan executing a brilliant run half the length of the field before shooting well out of McDougal's reach.

Before the final whistle further points had been added by Mulligan and Stevens.

Result:—Eastern 1; K.O.S.B. 7.

VARSITY v. RECREIO 2ND XI.

This match was played at the Stadium. A large number of spectators was present to see a keenly-contested game end in a draw of two goals each. The full-size ground was perhaps too exacting for the Varsity team, who were obviously tired in the later stages.

The teams were:—Varsity:—Chen Fah-shin; Loh Sang-poh. G. S. Scully; A. Reed, Wong Siew-jeng, Lew Khoo-shen; L. A. Oppenheim.

Koh Peh-po, Gan Kee-poon, Ling Sing-hang, Lee Hah-jeong.

HONG KONG TIDE

The tide-table given below has been obtained by aid of the Tide-predicting Machine, which includes 49
components for the better prediction of tides, from the result of the analysis of the tidal observations, taken at the Kowloon tidal observatory under the direction of Dr.
Dobersch during the years 1887, 1888,
and 1889.

The times and heights are given for Kowloon; but they may be used for the Victoria Naval Yard and Abodeen, the differences being very small.

The times of high and low-water must not be considered to coincide with the times of slack-water and change of current, the two phenomena being quite distinct.

UNITED EUROPE

The great mission of peace upon which Mr. Ramsay MacDonald has just ventured, so far with epochal success, enables us for the moment to set aside as improbable the likelihood of hostility between Great Britain and America. In the enthusiasms and eulogies which have of late surrounded the relationships of the two great English-speaking Powers, however, many have forgotten the other great idea which statesmen of the West (with wary eyes on the East) are planning quietly under the tumult of peace. This is none other than Coudenhove's great idea for a United States of Europe.

We would be the last to make light of Coudenhove's scheme. But is there anybody who seriously believes that it can be realised at any time within our vision?

It may be asked: If the Americans were able to create the United States of America, why should it not be possible to create a United States of Europe? But anyone asking such a question overlooks the fundamental differences between American and European history.

When North America was settled by the whites it was virtually unoccupied land, for the sparse Indian population cannot be regarded as a population in the modern meaning of the word. As the American settlers moved westward, new States were established, all united by identical interests. But the deciding factor was that the constant stream of immigrants was absorbed in and assimilated by the white settlers, so that every such immigrant, no matter from which country he came, became soon an English-speaking American. Thus the white population gradually developed as a homogeneous mass to its present great proportions, and one State of the Union after another came into existence. Yet despite this favourable historical development, the United States did not come into being without some friction. The Civil War was required to overcome the economic differences between the Northern and Southern States and to unite all in single federation.

The development in Europe was wholly different. For thousands of years peoples of different races and tongues, whose origin is lost in the mists of prehistoric days, have lived there crowded together. Europe's whole history, from the pre-Christian era to our own times, is full of unending wars, which were at bottom merely struggles to preserve the identity of the races that carried them on. One people always endeavoured to subjugate another, either physically or economically; the people attacked always defended itself against subjection. This continuous struggle that had gone on for thousands of years found its last terrible expression in the World War. This is not the place to go into the causes of that war. We must content ourselves with a bare statement of the facts. But these facts decided the political face of Europe.

This age-long struggle of the European peoples can be ended only by a reconciliation of their perpetually conflicting interests. But such a reconciliation requires the surrender of a part of each people's particularist egotism, and its adjustment to the higher interests of a great European community. America had the tremendous advantage of being able to make this adjustment gradually in the case of every immigrant, and thus to create a population thoroughly imbued with American spirit. But Europe has a population of 460 millions, of different races and tongues, divided by thousands of years of conflicting interests and hardly acquainted with the bare idea of a common European State. Unless a miracle intervenes, only a complete change of European habits of mind can move these peoples to surrender any part of their particularist egotism in the interests of a European union.

We would not assert that it is impossible to achieve this, and that efforts directed to that end are useless, but anyone knows how difficult it is for a new idea to permeate the life of the peoples, and how long it requires—it took Christianity more than a thousand years to conquer Europe—knows that Europe is still far removed from that new habit of mind that is a prerequisite of Pan-Europe, and that Pan-Europe cannot become a reality for a very long time to come.

NEWS IN BRIEF

There were no cases of notifiable disease during the 48 hours ended Oct. 6.

The Exchange Banks will be closed for the transaction of public business on Thursday Oct. 10, on the occasion of the Chinese Republic.

For the possession of a small amount of raw opium, a Chinese was fined $24 or, in default, six weeks' hard labour at the Kowloon Police Court to-day.

The new typhoon signal mast at Blackhead's Point (Signal Hill), Kowloon, is in the course of erection. The last one was snapped by the typhoon of August 23.

Notice has been given to the Registrar of the forthcoming wedding of Mr. Francis Charles Brimblecombe, Warder, Victoria Gaol, to Miss Fanny Blyth, No. 45, Wyndham-street, Hong Kong.

Among those to be married shortly are Mr. Augusto Antonio dos Remedios (of Messrs. Jardine, Matheson & Co., Ltd.), No. 2, Victory-road, Homuntin, and Miss Leonor Maria Gomes, No. 8, Humphreys-avenue, Kowloon.

The St. Andrew's Church Branch of the Scripture Union will meet in the Parish Hall at six o'clock this evening when the speaker will be Mr. S. V. Boxer, B.Sc., Warden of Morrison Hall. The subject will be "The Life of Dr. Barnardo."

In celebration of the anniversary of the Republic of China, the Hong Kong University union are holding a "Double Ten" concert and dance in the Great Hall of the University on October 10, starting at 8.30 p.m. Attendance is by invitation only.

Mr. T. S. Whyte-Smith at the Kowloon Police Court on Saturday cautioned a Chinese lad for driving a public ricksha without a licence. He also registered another caution against a Chinese lad, about the same age as the first for riding his bicycle without a lighted lamp at 6.45 p.m. on Friday.

Patrons will be interested to hear that the roof garden and grill of the Peninsula Hotel, Kowloon, will be open daily for the dancings from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. (Sundays excepted). Admission, including tea, is only 50 cents. There is dancing nightly (Sundays excepted) from 8.30 p.m.

It was authoritatively learned to-day that their Majesties the King and Queen of Belgium will go to Rome at the beginning of February to attend the wedding of Princess Marie Jose and Prince Humbert. —Reuter.

Pleading guilty to a charge of stealing two wooden chopping blocks from 191, Laichikok Road, two Chinese were at the Kowloon Magistrate's Court to-day sentenced to one month and five months hard labour, respectively. The second man had two previous convictions for stealing.

A lecture entitled "The Machinery of Warships" will be given by Engineer Captain W. H. Mitchell to-morrow at 8.30 p.m. in Room "K" of Hong Kong University. The lecture will be illustrated and will be of a popular nature. It will be held under the auspices of the University Engineering Society, and visitors will be welcomed.

Two army aeroplanes belonging to the French Air Mission returning from visits to Italy and Yugoslavia collided in a fog and crashed near Sorbier. All four occupants consisting of Commandant Tulone, the head of the Mission, and three "non-coms," were instantly killed, says a Reuter message from Tournay.

"You'll have to find out, and quickly, too," strongly remarked Mr. T. S. Whyte-Smith to-day at the Kowloon Magistrate's Court when two Chinese were charged with cruelty to three pigs by placing them in a crate without feeding. Both men pleaded ignorance of the regulations. A fine of $8 on each was imposed.

That there was no business in the "industry" was the statement made by a rapscallion who was at the Kowloon Magistrate's Court charged with the theft of 18 flower pots from a garden in Apollo-street, Shamshui-po. Accused frankly admitted the offence, and was sentenced to one month's hard labour.

"RED" TERRORISM

CORRESPONDENT DESCRIBES
LIFE IN SWATOW

THRILLING ESCAPE

Swatow, October 1.
A correspondent writes to the "China Mail":

The political conditions here are very much worse than I expected, but I was still hoping to go up to Sun Wu this week until last Sunday, when a friend came over and told me of the destruction by the "Reds" of the property of the Menonite Mission at Shanghai. After that had been razed to the ground, which was outside the city, they got into the city by treachery from within, and looted and destroyed the Menonite property and then seized the three Catholic priests and nine sisters and held them all for ransom.

Indignities
They were subjected to shameful indignities, and finally one of the priests was liberated with six of the sisters to come down here and raise $10,000 for the ransom of the others. It is understood that if the priest does not go back with the money within a certain number of days the hosts will all be killed.

The "Red" leader, I am informed, received his education in Germany, where he went through a German military school. He uses German methods in his fighting. He speaks German well. He and his men did the same thing in Tingchow, where all the property of the London Mission was seized.

Foreign Property
I hear that his objective is Sung-kow, Kaying, and Sun Wu. If the ransom money is paid it will be a great incentive for him to catch foreigners and hold them for what money he can get. My informant regards it as certain that all foreign property in Sun Wu and Kaying will be utterly destroyed. Truly, we have fallen on terrible times.

When Mr. Dick and his family escaped four months ago with three unmarried women of their station, he had a hair-raising time. They only got through because it rained so heavily one night that when they broke away the "Reds" could not go after them. Of course, they were soaked, but that was nothing to what might have happened to them in the hands of the "Reds."

Dr. Holman, who was captured last spring, finally escaped from the "Reds" by hiding in a rice-boller; they did not think to look for him there. It was well for him that they were not hungry, for if they had started a fire it would have been inconvenient for the doctor. He had such a hard time in the company of the "Reds," and during the escape, that, on reaching safety, he had to recuperate for three weeks before he could resume his journey to the coast.

CONSUL ENTERTAINS

ANNIVERSARY OF PORTUGAL
REPUBLIC

CHINESE GUESTS

Canton, Yesterday.
Consul-General, and Madame Ferreira da Silva received Chinese officials, members of the Consular Body and friends at their residence on Shamen yesterday, being the occasion of the anniversary of the Portuguese Republic. Mr. Silva made a brief address, saying:

"Ladies and gentlemen, I thank you all for coming here on the anniversary of the Portuguese Republic. I especially appreciate the presence of the Executive of the Kwangtung Government, Chairman General Chan Ming-shu. I have the honour to call upon you to drink to the health of the President of the Portuguese Republic."

Among those who called to felicitate Consul-General and Madame da Silva were Chairman General Chan Ming-shu, Councillor Leong Kang-him representing the commander-in-chief Chan Chai-tong, Mr. Yeasung Tao, Foreign Commissioner, General Au-yang Ku, Chief of Police, Minister Chu Chang-nien, Mr. Douglas Jenkins, American Consul-General, Mr. Yano, Japanese Consul-General, Mr. G. S. Moss, British Consul-General, Dr. W. Wagner, German Consul-General, Mr. L. Eynard, French Consul, Mr. W. J. Hansen, Danish Consul, Mr. U. Spallinger, Swiss Consul, Mr. J. Wierink, Dutch Consul, Mr. R. K. Batchelor, Norwegian Vice-Consul, and others.—Canton News Agency.

LAHORE TRIAL

HUNGER STRIKE TO BE SUSPENDED

Lahore, Yesterday—Lagat Singh, Dutt Singh, Sohan Singh, and Baner Jee, four of the accused in the Lahore Conspiracy case, have ceased their hungerstrike in gaol after a fast of 110 days during which time they were forcibly fed. In a message to the Press they have been hurriedly summoned to suspend their hungerstrike until the final decision of the Government with regard to the treatment of political prisoners is made public. —Reuter.

"ARE THEY NICE?"

COURT INTERPRETER AND PADI WORMS

A DELICACY!

Kwan Fun appeared at the Kowloon Magistracy to-day, before Mr. T. S. Whyte-Smith, charged with hawking padi worms, within market limits.

His Worship: What do these people do with padi worms. Eat them?

Sergeant Barnicle: They are said to be delicious!

His Worship (to the Interpreter): Have you ever eaten them, Mr. Yip?

Interpreter: Yes, your Worship. His Worship: Good?

Mr. Yip: Yes. His Worship: Are they nice?

Mr. Yip: Yes, quite nice. His Worship: You have been arrested for this twice before, Kwan Fu. Fined six dollars.

"PERFECT NUISANCE"

KINDNESS LOST ON A FEMALE
HAWKER

YET ANOTHER CHANCE

A Chinese female hawkker appeared at the Kowloon Magistracy to-day before Mr. T. S. Whyte-Smith charged with obstruction by leaving two baskets of eggs on the footpath in Laichikok Road.

His Worship: She has had two nights in the cells.

Inspector Hoare: This woman is a perfect nuisance, your Worship. She has been brought to the station often, and each time she has been let off with a caution. The Police in Shamshui Station subscribed money for a licence for her. On Saturday a friend bailed her out, and she ran to the sea-front and wanted to commit suicide, so we kept her in the cell for safety. She howled a lot in the cell.

His Worship: What do you mean by causing all this disturbance?

Defendant: Oh, I have children—but I would rather die. His Worship: The Police have been very good to you by giving you a licence. I'll caution you again, but next time the penalty will be heavy, because you have two previous convictions against you.

NON-STOP FLIGHT

COSTES SAID TO HAVE BROKEN
WORLD'S RECORD

TO RE-START FLIGHT

Rengo, To-day.
A message from Harbin states that the French Consul has received a telegram from Costes, saying that he was forced to land in a village 75 miles to the north of Tsitsihar on Sept. 29, owing to shortage of oil and petrol. It does not mention how the airman reached Tsitsihar from his landing place, although the telegram stated that he and Bellefonte are both there now, and are well.

The Consul has started for Tsitsihar to assist in preparations for continuing the flight to Japan, also to obtain the necessary permission from the Chinese authorities.

A later message says that Costes hopes to fly to Mukden as soon as he has re-fuelled, and thence to Japan. In the meantime it seems certain that he has broken the non-stop record, having covered about 5,000 miles. —Reuter.

Safe Arrival

Paris, Yesterday.
The Quai d'Orsay has received news that Costes landed safely on Sept. 29 in the region of Tsitsihar, north-east of Harbin. —Reuter.

Earlier Message

Osaka, Saturday.
A message from Harbin reported that Costes landed at a village near Tsitsihar at 8 p.m. yesterday. The name of the village is given as Kowchinza. —Reuter.

[The Airman Costes was believed to have lost his way while flying over Siberia. He flew northwards instead of eastwards from Novosibirsk and was seen by two people on Sunday afternoon over Krasnak. It is supposed that he was compelled to land near Taiga.]

PRESS DINNER

GUESTS UNTIL THE "WEE SMA' HOURS"
NO SPEECHES!

In the "Ah Chow" room of the Man Kwok Restaurant, West Point, on Saturday night, Mr. J. W. Lee, Honorary Secretary of the Chinese Athletic Association, was host at a dinner party at which the Chinese and European football reporters of the local Press were the guests. The gathering, which was of an informal and fraternal nature, was well attended and lasted until a "wee sma' hour." The majority of the guests arrived about 8.30 p.m., or soon after. Card tables were opened at 9 o'clock and games were indulged in until almost midnight when dinner was served.

As it was a reporters' dinner there were, of course, no speeches. Not that they had nothing to say to their hospitable host, but because no one volunteered to take on the job of note taker, and everyone made sure not to take a note book and pencil along with him!

A "Corker" the "China Mail" football scribe, rang up to the office just before "chow" to say that as a host Mr. Lee was a "corker," and he ("Roamer") was having a good time. By the way he spoke we can believe him, but as his football reports have been turned in there is no excuse for the editor to kick.

He did remark, however, that it wouldn't be fun if the Football Secretaries of every local sports club followed Mr. Lee's example and treated their net reporters to dinner, but, of course, he is jealous!

POLICE CONCERT

LARGE ATTENDANCE AT "AL-FRESCO"

AN EXCELLENT PROGRAMME

Fine weather favoured the "Al Fresco" concert, organised by the Police and held on Saturday on the lawn of the Police Recreation Club, Happy Valley. There was a large attendance, which was very gratifying to the organisers of the entertainment, who had worked hard to make their first public effort a success. Saturday night's audience included His Excellency the General Officer Commanding, Major-General J. W. Sandilands, C.B., C.M.G., D.S.O., the acting Captain Superintendent of Police, Hon. Mr. T. H. King, and a number of Officers of the Command.

For good variety the programme was well arranged, and catered for all musical tastes. The major portion was in the hands of Bandmaster W. H. Fitz-Earle, A.R.C.M., and his able Bandmen of the 2nd Battalion the King's Own Scottish Borderers. In addition, there were four items contributed by local talent, which were well presented and enthusiastically applauded by the audience.

Mrs. O. C. Womack sang "Roses of Picardy" very effectively, with a soft band accompaniment. The audience insisted on an encore, and she had to sing the well-known and popular "Killarney" before they were satisfied.

The Humorous Side

The humorous side of the programme was shouldered by Mrs. F. Bunje and Mr. V. C. Labrum, and it could not have been placed in better hands. Mrs. Bunje, in Character Sketches, was delightful. She told the story of the "Red Riding Hood" in the style of an imaginative school girl. Mr. Labrum was dressed for the part of the comedian in white flannels, black and white coat, bowler hat, and a red nose! He was in his usual "high humour" in the songs "He's Not Old Enough to be Old" and "Him-or-as," in both of which he was accompanied by the Band.

Mr. R. McA. Kown sang a couple of Folk Songs, and his rich voice was heard to advantage in the open. Moore's "Believe Me" was his first, which was followed by the old English song, "Drink to me only." Both were deservedly applauded.

Four pipers of the K.O.S.B. danced the Highland Dance, "The Argyle Broadwards," which thrilled the many Scots present, and the others too.

Of the Band items, special mention must be made of the Mischere Scene from Verdi's "Il Trovatore," in which the cornet solo was effectively played by Musician H. Latimer from the other end of the ground, backed by the Band playing softly. The clarinet solo by Band-Sergeant G. Ware in this same number was also delightful in the open. So insistent was the audience that an encore had to be given of the cornet solo.

"Blue Bonnets o'er the Border" and the National Anthem brought a very enjoyable evening to a close.

4,000 SHELLS FIRED

CHINESE RE-INFORCEMENTS TO FRONT

Shanghai, Saturday.

Reports from many Chinese and Japanese sources emphasize the seriousness of the Soviet attacks against the Chinese forces in the vicinity of Manchuria during the past three days. It is reported that the Soviet fired 4,000 shells on October 5 alone. The attack was renewed on October 6.

The Chinese are rushing further re-inforcements to the front. Reports from the Chinese Press state that the Chinese forces are now in a position to repel the Soviet attacks.

GAMBLERS CAUGHT

ARREST FOLLOWS RAID BY CHINESE DETECTIVE

FAN TAN AGAIN

Fourteen Chinese men, some stone breakers and others earth coolies employed by a sub-contractor of Lam Woo, Building Contractor, appeared at the Kowloon Magistracy on Saturday before Mr. T. S. Whyte-Smith on charges of playing fan tan in their makeshift, at Kowloon Dock, as the result of a raid carried out by Divisional-Inspector G. A. Stimson and a party of police on Friday night.

The first two defendants were charged with keeping the place as a common gaming house, while the rest were arraigned for playing.

Busy-Banker A Chinese detective, in evidence, said that when he entered the room where the defendants were busily playing he saw the first defendant, who was banker, counting out beads (172 in number) with a small stick. The second defendant was taking in the losses and paying out the winnings to the gamblers. A white piece of paper with the fan tan square marked on it with charcoal, was produced in Court.

His Worship said that in this case it was different from any other in that they had not turned in house into a common gaming place. The fine would therefore be less.

The two first defendants were fined $50 each, with the option of three weeks' hard labour, and the whole of the remainder were fined $3, with the alternative of five days' jail each. The proceeds amounting to $1,009, were ordered to be confiscated.

TREE CUTTING

YOUNG GIRLS CAUTIONED FOR TRESPASSING

PARENTS RESPONSIBLE

Looking quite happy in spite of having spent two nights in the cells, the four Haka girls arraigned on charges of cutting pine trees in No. 9C Government Plantation, Sai Kung Road, Kowloon City, were again before Mr. T. S. Whyte-Smith at the Kowloon Magistracy.

His Worship inquired of Mr. G. B. Twenlow, Assistant Superintendent of the Botanical and Forestry Department, as to whether the parents had been communicated with, and was informed that some of the mothers were sitting in the Court. An old woman then came hobbling up on a stick, and claimed to be the grandmother of two of the girls, while another village woman said she was the mother of a third.

Addressing the old woman, his Worship said that she must have known that her grand-daughters had taken a chopper with them to cut trees. He did not believe her statement that she had told them to go out and gather dried branches of trees. There was no doubt that the parents had sent these children out to cut trees, and the next time any of them get caught the parents would be charged instead.

The girls were discharged with a caution.

LIFE SAVING

MORE LOCAL CANDIDATES PASS EXAM

An examination was held at North Point on Monday last for Proficiency Certificates and Bronze Medallions of the Royal Life Saving Society. The class, presented by their instructor, Cpl. Branch, of the K.O.S.B., did full justice to their instructor. The various tests were carried out in a very fine manner, and all the candidates proved themselves fully capable of saving life under difficult circumstances.

The following recommendations have been made, the award of Bronze Medallions and Proficiency Certificates to:—Armt./Staff-Sgt. Bls. R.A.O.C., Armt./Staff-Sgt. Bls. R.A.O.C., Pte McKenna, Pte Cuthbert, Pte Utteridge, 2/K.O.S.B., Hon. Instructor Certificate to Corporal Branch, 2/K.O.S.B. This brings the number of K.O.S.B. Passes to well over 40, and it is hoped that many more of the Servicemen in the Colony will become candidates for these awards.

Commercial News

The commercial news service started on September 30 and is now in working order. Thanks to the energy of Mr. H. Lowcock, As regards Press news local newspapers, it is officially stated, by the Committee, will take it in turn weekly to supply local news in bulletin form at 10 o'clock every evening when a General Programme is given. The news bulletin will be supplemented by the London news service, released by Rugby daily.

Mr. Robert Sutherland, O.B.E., is working on a tentative suggestion which has put to various shipping companies in Hong Kong for a special programme for tourist steamers approaching Hong Kong. The message will be one of welcome to visitors to Hong Kong with an itinerary of the most interesting places to visit during their stay in the Colony.

The Programme Secretary has suggested to the Committee the advisability of releasing holders of

ROUND THE CINEMAS

SCREEN VERSION OF IMMORTAL POEM AT MAJESTIC

"THE ANCIENT MARINER"

Samuel Taylor Coleridge, born in 1772, wrote that famous poem, "The Ancient Mariner," which stands as "one of the finest in English." Chester Bennett has brought it as a Fox production to the screen, and has made a great success of his effort. To-day for the last time, one may see the picture at the Majestic Theatre, Kowloon.

The screen-version has in no mean way dispelled the interest of the poem. Rather the beauty of the written story is brought out to the full and one sees the hideousness of man, when lustful; he destroys all good living things on earth—then finally, man's fall and the awful disaster that overcomes him. All this is vividly depicted on the screen.

Crew's Ill Luck

The killing of an albatross, a good-omen to the sailor, by the Ancient Mariner, brings a curse upon an otherwise happy and contented crew. They all die, and finally the schooner is left in the sole command of the Mariner, for he is the only one alive. He is, however, saved and lived to tell the tale. Clara Bow appears in a small part as a school-mistress and not the hot-headed flapper she usually depicts. Earle Williams, Leslie Fenton, Nigel de Brulior, and Gladys Brookwell all act excellently in supporting roles. The picture is well worth seeing.

LOTS OF SENTIMENTALITY

Glenn Tryon and Barbara Kent in "Lonesome"

Although there are crowds and crowds of people in the picture "Lonesome," showing at the Queen's Theatre to-day, only two are included in the cast. They are Glenn Tryon and Barbara Kent. The picture is unusual in this respect, and an original note is struck. The acting of Glenn Tryon is masterful, while that of Barbara Kent is all that may be desired.

Surging Millions In the huge city of New York, there were two people that amidst the surging millions, were lonesome (so the story goes). They were a boy and a girl. They had friends, but of the casual type, and as every Saturday arrived with its precious hours of freedom, they had no one to spend the day with. Eventually both the boy and the girl meet at a fair, and they fall in love with each other.

They have a rare time together, then quite by accident they are separated, and they lose each other. A climax, thrilling as it is unusual is afforded.

Although the story is simple, interest is well maintained throughout. The scenes are one riot of surging crowds, despoiling themselves at the fair. Clever scenic effects are shown and the piece, taken as a whole, is fine entertainment.

A WHITE LIE

"VICTIM" ADMITS ROBBERY WAS PLANNED

The "daring" robbery reported to the Police by a foki of the Kwong Tai shop, Hing Lung-street, in which he states that $832.98 entrusted him by his master to pay to Connell Bros. of David House and Himly and Co., of Connaught-road respectively, was stolen by two men who blinded him with pepper, has been found to be nothing but a "white lie."

The Police have discovered that there is no truth in the foki's story, of which they are suspicious. At the Police Station the foki admitted that he and another "staged" the robbery. The other man is now missing, and he is alleged to know all about the money, which has not as yet been recovered.

"AND SO TO BED"

FORTHCOMING PRODUCTION BY COLONY'S AMATEURS

For their first production of the season the Hong Kong Amateur Dramatic Club have selected James Bernard Fagan's delightful play "And So To Bed" which depicts a day in the life of the great diarist Mr. Peypys. The author has explained that the day in question is not actually described in the Diary and that it is entirely imaginary. He calls his work a comedy, but there are so many amusing situations that it might almost have been described as a farce, and costume farces are rare.

Samuel Pepys The cast will be headed by two old favourites in the persons of Mr. W. A. Hannibal and Mrs. Grossman, who will play the parts of "Samuel Pepys" and "My Wife, poor Wretch." The important role of "Charles II" has been allotted to Mr. R. A. Green, whose charming baritone voice has often delighted Hong Kong audiences, but he will be making his first appearance in a "straight" part. An excellent supporting cast has been secured. The first performance will take place on Saturday, November 16, and the play will be repeated four nights and possibly one matinee during the following week.

The circulars requesting names and dates of birthdays of children, by order of the Hong Kong Radio Society, has been found extremely popular with children everywhere.

WARWICK REVUE COMPANY'S VISIT INDIAN PRESS VIEWS

The Warwick Revue Company, which is to commence a short season at the Star Theatre on Thursday, October 10, has been rousing "The Times of India" (Bombay) and "The Statesman" (Calcutta) to a high pitch of enthusiasm.

The former said: "It is years since we have had an opportunity of witnessing such enthusiasm as was seen in the theatre last night. The audience literally rose at this talented company of artists. There is an atmosphere—a certain cache about the whole proceedings that is quite unique. Laughter is abundant, and it is always in a delightful setting—irresistibly droll and clever."

"The Statesman" said: "To miss seeing the Warwick Revue Company is to miss a rare treat indeed. It is the nearest approach to a London entertainment that we have seen for a very long time. In fact, it is in many respects up to London standard itself. The comedy is of a high order, while the general tone of the production is elegant and colourful. The Warwick Revue Company offers a real tonic to the jaded."

"During the season here five entirely different productions will be presented. The 'Peep Show,' 'High Lights,' 'Ary Nothing,' 'Step This Way,' and 'Everything.' Those whose eyes are in the direction of light comedy entertainment will find no time to 'sleep' their seats in good time. The box seats will shortly open at the Star Theatre."

CRICKET

DRAWN GAME FOLLOWS KEEN STRUGGLE

H.K.C.C. v. KOWLOON C.C.

A drawn game resulted after a keen struggle between the Hong Kong Cricket Club and the Kowloon
Cricket Club on the former's ground on Saturday afternoon. Hong Kong Club batted first and started rather weakly. T. E. Pearce made a good score of 45 runs and, his batting throughout was sound and stylish.
His successors also made good stands and the standard of batting attained was high. The Kowloon C.C. excelled themselves in the field, their returns were splendid and the whole team worked together to put up a creditable performance. Hong Kong
C.C. declared at 160 runs for 9
wickets.

Opening Stages

Kowloon commenced batting slowly but surely. Their strokes were not the powerful ones of their opponents, but steady, and the ball was well placed every time. The opening pair made a great stand together and very good batting was displayed.
Hong Kong Club could do with a little improvement in the field and in the placing of the fielders. The fieldwork altogether was not as thorough as that of the Kowloon
Club, although the ball was returned with great precision in many cases. The scores were as under:—

THE SECOND ELEVEN

KOWLOON C.C. v. H.K.C.C.

The Hong Kong C.C. 2nd XI met and defeated the Kowloon C.C. 2nd XI in a trial game on the latter's ground on Saturday. The Hong Kong Club proved much too strong for their opponents, who were obviously handicapped to a great extent by the absence of three players,
who were taking part in the Interport
Bowls Match. Divett, of the Hong Kong Club, made a fine stand and was finally dismissed l.b.w. for 88 runs. The field work of the Kowloon Club was quite sound and better than
was to be expected, the ball being returned with great accuracy.

VARSITY DECLARE

Craigengower Beaten Easily at Pokfulam

With D. G. A. Anderson and S. V.
Gittins scoring 91 runs each, the Hong Kong University were on Saturday able to declare with their score at 214 runs for 3 wickets in a match at Pokfulam against the Craigengower Cricket Club. The University won by 7 wickets and 82 runs.

Anderson and Lee opened steadily for the Varsity lads, but Lee did not stay long, getting his foot in front of one from Lacey. Gittins joined.
Anderson and a bright partnership was witnessed. Seven bowlers were tried by the Valley boys before Lim managed to get both the batsmen.
Anderson hit 14 fours while Gittins touched the boundary on no fewer than 15 occasions. Craigengower paid the penalty of missing chances given by both of the bats early on.

In contrast to the University,
Craigengower began shakily. But Abbas (55) and Lacey (22) somewhat atoned the situation. The others failed with the bat.

Lam and Anderson (University)
did all the damage with the ball.

H.K. YANKEES CONCEDE ANOTHER WALK OVER

A BLANK DAY

Two games—a friendly and a league match—were down for decision on Saturday, but "no play" turned out to be the order of the day.

The Japanese Club was to play a friendly game against the U.S.S.
"Mindanao," but the ship was unexpectedly called away to Wuchow
early on Saturday morning.

In the League game the South
China outfit was to play the Hong Kong Yankees. The latter did not turn up and thus conceded a walk-over.

In order to while away the afternoon,
the South China players engaged themselves in a game with a scratch side
from the Kluaras.

INLAND MISSION

RELEASE OF REV. CECIL SMITH

CAPTURED BY TROOPS

Shanghai, Yesterday.
The headquarters of the China
Inland Mission here has received a message from Kuelyang stating that the Rev. Cecil Smith has been released and has reached Kuelyang safely. No further details are given.

The missionary was captured and made prisoner by troops engaged in the civil war on September 10,
news of the affair not reaching the Mission until October 2 when urgent representations for the release were made to Nanking.

Reuter.

A. Peking message of October 2 stated: It is officially announced that two British missionaries of the China Inland Mission have been kidnapped in south-west Kweichow province during September. On September 10 troops engaged in civil war carried off Mr. Cecil Smith from Yunnan. On September 14, brigades captured Mr. D. P. Pike at Sinching, while he was travelling from south Kweichow to Yunnan.
The British authorities have made representations to the Kweichow and Nanking Governments.

RECREJO BOWL

In the 17th head Silva lay half a foot from the jack. Both Souza's woods were counters and Ribeiro added a fourth. Jessiman drew the shot with a beauty and in the end his side counted one.

Play in the succeeding head was very good. Phillips trailed and lay. Then a wick gave Souza the shot, and another wick favoured Phillips in the same way. Ribeiro gave Shanghai a "dunt" and Recrejo lay a couple. A great try by Dorrance availed nothing. The scores were now level: 14-14.

Silva in the 19th head got in a pretty bowl and was never shifted. Recrejo thus took the lead for the first time.

Glover's first one was very well judged and try as his opponents would he could not be removed, and the scores were again level with one more head to go.

Closing Thrills

The final head was a truly wonderful one, and seldom has a finer bunch been seen round the jack. Glover's first was a shade heavy behind. Silva was almost jack high. Glover got a useful wick and just went through. Silva rested on a wood and got the shot. Phillips did likewise and Souza returned the compliment! Phillips came back to do the same, only this time he exposed the jack a bit. Souza was just a trifle beyond the kitty. Jessiman was rather heavy but Ribeiro's seemed as if it was shot. Jessiman was wide with his second and Ribeiro was through. Dorrance got a fine wick, moved the jack, and looked as if he had given his side three out of the deal. "He'll be a wonderful player if he can do anything now," said Kerley, of Shanghai, who was sitting on the bank with "Short Head." But Luz did it—a remarkable effort, which was deservedly applauded. Dorrance made no change and Luz preferred to take no risks with the last wood of a very fine match.

Result:

Club de Recrejo 16
Shanghai 15

Presentation of Spoons

At the conclusion of the game, Mr. d'Almada, junr., the President of the Club, presented spoons to the Shanghai players. Although, he said, he knew nothing about bowls, he had thoroughly enjoyed the game that afternoon and the very fine finish. Whilst he was glad to see the Recrejo win, he was sorry to see Shanghai lose. It was a very sporting afternoon's entertainment.

Mr. Malcolm said that the game that day was the best he had seen so far. It seemed to him that the Shanghai bowlers played better when he (Mr. Malcolm) was out of the team ("No"). He congratulated the Club de Recrejo on their fine victory.

Mr. Dorrance said that the green was the finest he had played on. The winners played an excellent game and he had no excuses to offer. He presented the Club de Recrejo players with spoons.

Cheers were given for both teams.

Lawrence. Later the same player nearly put the ball in his own goal, but Marques snatched the ball and kicked clear. The Recrejo left wing now came into the picture, and a high shot was saved by Chen Fah-shin. A few minutes later, taking advantage of a mis-kick from Britto, Gan Kee-pon beat Chen Fah-shin with a low shot in the corner of the net. The same player, who was always taking a shot at goal whenever possible, netted again from 25 yards out, with a fine shot to which the goalie was unsighted by his own backs.

Half-time score:—University 2; Recrejo 0.

Continual Pressing

At the resumption, Recrejo showed that they were to be more in the picture, and continually pressed, and, after a number of shots, which went wide, Gosano scored his side's first goal. Play now became more or less confined to the University's half, though Gan Kee-pon always looked dangerous. Towards the end of the game, Recrejo equalised through Gonsalves, who scored with a fine oblique shot which Chen Fah-shin, who had made many fine saves, could not reach.

Result:—University 2; Recrejo 2.

Comment

The University team were apparently unaccustomed to playing on such a large ground, though their combination and dash in the first half was excellent. Recrejo relied on a sound defence, and, in the second session were more together, and were always near their opponents' goal.

S. CHINA "A" v. SOMERSETS

The Chinese "A" team entertained the Somerset's Reserves at Caroline Hill and won a well-fought game by 4 goals to 2.

Teams:—
South China:—Cheung Yut-kwan; Tam Kwong-pak, Sze To-hoi; Tang King-ki, Lung Wing-chui, Ip Koon-ming; Cheng Shiu-hong, Ng Po-ku; Cheng Chit-ming, Chiu Kwok-leung, Ip Yan-sum.
Somerset L.L.:—Reano; Verrier, Hillier; Saviger, Troth, Chidgey; Neil, Early, Guest, Jenkinson, Ewert.

"Nippy" Forwards
The Chinese were soon on the attack and the Somerset defences were hard put to it to keep their nippy forwards in check. South China drew first blood when Ip Yan-sum ran through and beat Reano. From the kick-off the Somerset played up strongly and Jenkinson levelled up accounts with a nice shot that beat Cheung Yut-kwan. Just before the interval the Chinese increased their lead through Ip Koon-ming.

Half time: South China "A" 2; Somerset's 1.

Chinese Force Corner
The resumption found the Chinese again attacking and their forwards gave the Somerset's defence a worrying time. South China forced a corner on the left but nothing came of it. Following this Chiu Kwok-leung missed a fine opportunity to increase the lead when from close range, he shot wide. The Somerset were seldom in the picture at this stage and were forced to adopt a defensive game. A clever combined effort on the part of the Chinese forwards resulted in Chiu Kwok-leung putting his side further ahead, and immediately following this Ng Po-ku added a fourth with a smart header. The Somerset tried hard to reduce this deficit and in the closing stages Ewert scored from a corner taken by Neil.

Result: South China "A" 2; Somerset's 2.

R.A. v. KOWLOON

Teams:—
Royal Artillery:—Lawrence, Hall, Malby; Raybone, Bridgeman, Ward, Rodgers, Chambers, Reed, Watson, Gough.
Kowloon:—Angus; Springett, Hast, Mober, Campbell, Simpson; Hannan, Seddon, Moss, Conates, Bickford.

The opening stages were fairly even but Kowloon were the first to become dangerous when Bickford obtained possession and put in a fine centre which this forwards, however, failed to convert. The Gunners made good ground on the right and forced a corner but Rodgers' kick went outside. The forwards on both sides lacked dash and no doubt were feeling the effects of the heat. Conates put Hannan through with a nice forward pass, but that player's shot went outside. Kowloon drew first blood shortly following this through Seddon whose dropping shot had Lawrence guessing. The Gunners played a better game following this reverse and from a corner taken by Gough, Reed equalised. Half time came with the scores even.

Half time: R.A. 1; Kowloon 1.

A Fine Effort

On resuming the Artillery proceeded to dominate the play and took the lead when the ball rebounded off one of the Kowloon backs into the goal. Following this Gough put his side further ahead with a fine effort which beat Angus. With this two goals' deficit, Kowloon fought hard to reduce the lead and in this they were successful when Hannan beat Lawrence with a good shot. The final whistle arrived without further scoring and the Artillery emerging victors by 3 goals to 2.

CHINESE "A" v. EWO

Played on the Railway Ground at Kowloon, the Chinese "A" team had an easy task in disposing of the newcomers to the league. Chan Yuen-kwai opened the scoring five minutes after the commencement and Li Fong added a second prior to the interval. Ewo had a greater share of the game during the second half, but failed to finish their efforts off in a manner likely to command success. They managed to reduce the lead, however, through Chan Yui-wing, but three further goals by Shek Pin-tin (2) and Chow Yik-shan gave the Chinese team a handsome victory.

INTERPORT BOWLS

EXTRAORDINARY THRILLING FINISH

HONG KONG JUST WIN

Shanghai Fail To Recover The "Ashes"

A MATCH TO BE REMEMBERED

[By "Short Head"]

Hong Kong on Saturday won the Interport lawn bowls match against Shanghai, thereby wiping out the stain on our escutcheon by reason of our defeat here in 1927, equalling Shanghai's record of winning two years in succession, and levelling up the winning records of the rival ports since 1918.

The finish of the game yesterday will long be talked of in interport circles by reason of the thrilling finish. With three shots essential to draw, Shanghai found the jack packed against them when Malcolm had to play the last wood of the match. The only thing to do was to endeavour to burn the head—a rather forlorn hope! He drove as only he can drive—scattered the bowls in all directions and drove the jack a bare three inches from the adjoining rink for a count of only one. But it was a phenomenal shot and elicited round upon round of applause from the large concourse of spectators.

DEPUTY GOVERNOR'S KEEN INTEREST

As President of the Lawn Bowls Association His Excellency the Deputy Governor (or Officer Administering the Government, to give his official title)—the Hon. Mr. W. T. Southorn, C.M.G., was a very interested spectator of the match from start to finish. At the close he was the first to congratulate the losing skip on his magnificent last-wood effort and to sympathise with him in his very narrow defeat. Likewise he walked down the green to meet the winning skip, congratulate him on keeping the flag and the cup in the Colony, and escort him to the viceregent's marquee, there to receive the united congratulations of the assembled company.

The Green

All this, of course, anticipates the natural sequence of events. The green was looking very well, but from a bowler's point of view it was a shade on the tricky side, particularly in playing toward the Jordan Road end, an almost imperceptible "dip" causing many woods to find a resting place in the ditch. On one particular head no fewer than nine woods were wasted in this manner. Still, this handicap was felt as much by the locals as by the visitors, none of the former being playing members of the Kowloon Cricket Club.

The Crowd

From a bowls point of view it was well that the weather was perfect, the sun being, if anything, a trifle too warm for this time of the year. In the earlier stages there was a tempering breeze, but this almost died away before the closing stages were reached.

No official estimate of the attendance was available last night, but there must have been over 300 spectators present when the teams appeared on the green for the usual trial heads. The grounds were tastefully and even lavishly bedecked with flags and bunting, the flag of the Shanghai Lawn Bowls Association occupying a prominent place beside the flag won by the local team-up North last year. There was a larger proportion of ladies than usual, whilst the muster of men was quite good in view of the counter-attractions provided by the official opening of the Football League.

The Game

If anything the local rink were the steadier during the first half seven heads, when they scored on five of them. Then a debacle was witnessed in the shape of a "kill" of six for the visitors. A couple of singles came Hong Kong's way, and Shanghai got a couple. A trio for the locals made the scores 11 all, but the home rink secured another three and a one, giving them the lead by 15-11. Shanghai monopolised the next four heads, scoring a two and three units and gaining the lead by one shot (16-15).

At the 19th head Malcolm was unfortunate in removing one of his own woods and letting Hong Kong have a count of three, which the latter followed up by scoring one on the second last head. This brought the scores to 19-16 in Hong Kong's favour. Then followed the incident aforementioned when Malcolm smashed everything with the last wood of the match—after Hong Kong lay a trio of shots—and almost burned the head. Whilst the crowd naturally cheered the local victory, they were nevertheless demonstratively appreciative of Malcolm's great effort to snatch the game out of the fire.

It may here be mentioned that Malcolm's final shot sent the jack to the ditch, three inches from the next rink, whilst one of his own side's woods ran up the steps at the bank and "refused" to come down. The umpire (Mr. A. O. Brown) rightly interpreted the laws of the English Lawn Bowls Association in regarding this particular wood as dead and

THE GAME DESCRIBED

First Head

Laing drew the jack and was a couple of yards shot, as was Phillips. Laing rolled his second wide, but Phillips got half a foot in front of the jack.

Basa's first was a yard shy and Jessiman was through. Basa was again short. Jessiman was a shade narrow beyond the jack.

Grimmitt was short rather wide, but Dorrance was narrow and shot. Grimmitt got a lucky wick to lie, but was beaten by Dorrance, a foot from the jack.

Ferguson was a good length but wide, and Malcolm tipped in Ferguson. Ferguson's second went behind and Malcolm was a trifle heavy and went narrow—One for Hong Kong.

Second Head

Laing sent down a long jack and was steamy. Phillips was just jack high. Laing was a good length, a bit wide. Phillips found the ditch.

Basa was very narrow and Jessiman rested in the ditch. Basa was as much wide as he was narrow before. Jessiman lay handy to Phillips's second wood. Grimmitt found the ditch, as did Dorrance—much to Malcolm's disgust. Grimmitt struck a back wood whilst he was travelling to the ditch, and Jessiman plauted one beside him.

Ferguson went through the port and Malcolm ran the jack amid applause. Ferguson dropped but in a good place. Malcolm was a good length but a shade narrow—One for Shanghai.

Third Head

Phillips was lazy—a couple of yards—and Laing was little better. Phillips finished a yard short and Laing just missed the jack. Jessiman wanted that fatal yard, and Basa bumped in Jessiman and Jessiman was steamy and narrow. Basa just missed the jack and lay a yard narrow behind.

Dorrance drew a beautiful shot—(applause)—but was taken out by Grimmitt (applause)—Dorrance got timber—bad luck. Grimmitt trailed the jack. (Applause.) Malcolm struck wood with his first, and Ferguson tried to fill a port but got timber. Malcolm struck wood also and made no change. Ferguson tried a "wee Talkoo shot" amid laughter—Hong Kong, one.

Fourth Head

After Laing was narrow Phillips sent in a beauty on the jack (Applause). Laing got a rub off his own wood, and lay behind the jack. He was joined by Phillips's second shot. Basa was narrow, but Ferguson was a couple of yards short. Basa lay jack high without affecting the position. Jessiman found the ditch.

Grimmitt got wood when jack high, and Dorrance got a wee rub behind. Grimmitt took out Laing's wood behind the jack, and Dorrance placed a handy one a couple of yards through "according to instructions."

Ferguson shifted the jack but Shanghai still lay one. Malcolm got into second place (Applause). Ferguson was very much down. Malcolm would not bend in time—Two for Shanghai.

Fifth Head

Phillips was a yard shy and Laing well through. Phillips was a yard behind, narrow, leaving it easy for Laing to draw the shot. Jessiman was a shade narrow and short, and Basa got a wee wick off Laing and rested on the jack (Applause). Jessiman got wood. Basa shifted the jack a trifle, improving the position for the enemy.

Dorrance got a wick off Laing in front of the kitty and went through. Grimmitt's lay in a handy place—a measure for four. Dorrance missed all and found the ditch. Grimmitt got a wick behind the jack and rolled nearer the ditch.

Malcolm gave the "rubbing" and got shot—a great effort. (Applause.) Ferguson smashed up a bit to give Hong Kong the shot. (Applause.) Malcolm was narrow and heavy. Ferguson's second was harmless—One for Hong Kong. Score: 8-3.

Sixth Head

Laing trailed the jack on a long head, and Phillips had a good try.

Laing went west—in the ditch. Phillips was half a yard shy.

Basa was short and narrow. Jessiman went to the ditch. Basa gave Phillips a turn over—no change. Jessiman wicketed and was ditched.

Grimmitt's first wood emulated Jessiman, and Dorrance followed suit. Grimmitt was too wide, and Dorrance rested in the ditch—six of the woods in the ditch!

Ferguson was narrow and short a couple of feet. Malcolm's first swelled the number of "also rans" in the ditch. And Ferguson also went there!—Eight woods in the ditch! And Malcolm made the total nine!—Hong Kong one.

Tenth Head

Laing's first wood was a yard shy, and Phillips was a couple of yards in front. Laing got shot jack high. Phillips trailed the jack and lay.

Basa got wood behind and Shanghai lay two. Jessiman was a shade wide. Basa was very weak. Jessiman found the ditch.

Grimmitt was a good yard and a bit, whilst Dorrance got timber. Grimmitt went over a yard behind and Hong Kong lay a bunch. Dorrance again got wood.

Ferguson's first got shot but opened it up better. Malcolm would not bend but was almost second shot. Ferguson was short and narrow a trifle. Malcolm was too heavy and narrow—no change—Hong Kong, two.

Eighth Head

To a fairly long head Laing was well through and narrow, and Phillips was a couple of feet in front. Laing again was narrow and a yard through. Phillips was wide, jack high.

Basa found the shot with his first wood—(applause)—and Jessiman rolled in behind him. Basa was a couple of yards short. Jessiman took out Basa and lay a couple (Applause).

Grimmitt went through narrow. Dorrance rested on a local wood and lay one. Grimmitt could not improve the position. Dorrance knocked in a sixth wood.

Ferguson found the port without result. Malcolm sent in a beauty (Applause). Ferguson was very short indeed. Malcolm added another beauty—a bowler! (Applause).—Six for Shanghai. Score: 9-6.

Ninth Head

Phillips put his first a yard short but Laing's banded better and got shot. Phillips "made use of his friend" and lay. Laing next lay, jack high.

Jessiman "went through the hole." Basa rested on the outside of the side woods. Jessiman refused to bend in time. Basa was wooded on the fore hand.

Dorrance got a great shot off a wee wick—(applause)—but Grimmitt was half a yard in front. Dorrance was lazy. Grimmitt rolled in to lie the shot (Applause).

Malcolm touched in one of his own without any change, and Ferguson followed suit. Malcolm was "no up." Ferguson could not improve the position. A very good head indeed!—One for Hong Kong.

Tenth Head

Laing was a yard short, and Phillips the same distance through. Laing went half a yard through, but Phillips could not make the running.

Basa was too heavy. Jessiman was "ditto." Basa again was "ditto." Jessiman got second shot behind the jack.

Grimmitt got first shot with a touch—(applause)—but Dorrance trailed the jack and lay. (Applause.) Grimmitt was shy and got timber. Dorrance went to the ditch.

Ferguson raged into the ditch, and Malcolm was much too wide. Ferguson luckily bumped in his own wood for the shot (Applause). Malcolm was narrow and found the ditch—One for Hong Kong.

Eleventh Head

Making no variations on the lengths Laing was a couple of feet away, jack high, but was well beaten by Phillips who got chalk. (Applause.) Phillips placed one handy behind.

Basa was a yard short and narrow and Jessiman rested on Basa. The latter was narrow. Jessiman lay in a nice place behind.

Grimmitt went past everything. Dorrance was a yard short and narrow. Grimmitt was very lazy. Dorrance would not bend in time.

Ferguson missed everything and Malcolm put in a beauty on the jack. (Applause.) Ferguson went clear of the danger zone. Malcolm was scarcely up—Two for Shanghai.

Twelfth Head

To a much shorter head Phillips was a yard short and Laing bumped off him for shot. Phillips's second lay almost jack high.

Jessiman lay handy, and Basa went through about a yard. Jessiman was a shade heavy, and Basa was shy a yard.

Dorrance sent his first in for shot—(applause)—and Grimmitt tipped in his own side to lie a couple. (Applause.) Dorrance was wide and heavy. Grimmitt was a good length, but much too wide.

Malcolm was among the bunch, but made no change, whilst Ferguson was narrow. Malcolm followed Ferguson who went to the tape with his next—Three for Hong Kong. Score: 11-11.

Thirteenth Head

Laing was a couple of feet from the jack, but Phillips was a bit shorter. Laing got in a foot from the jack but Phillips was very wide.

Basa got a wick off Laing and went behind. Jessiman got the front timber. Basa put in a fourth shot. (Applause.) Jessiman crept into among the counters—(applause)—but Shanghai still lay.

Grimmitt got wood. Dorrance pushed them through without any change and Grimmitt again got wood. Dorrance was too steamy and wide.

Ferguson went behind and Malcolm rested on the first bunch—no change. Ferguson put in a short block. Malcolm drove, but knocked up Ferguson's block, the latter going into the bunch and giving Hong Kong three.

Fourteenth Head

Laing was well behind and Phillips half a yard behind. Laing got the shot a foot behind. Phillips just got through.

Basa drew shot—(applause)—but Jessiman refused to bend. Basa added another shot close to the jack. (Applause.) Jessiman improved on this. (Applause).

Grimmitt's first wood knocked the jack on to Jessiman and went through. Dorrance disturbed the jack and Hong Kong lay a couple. Grimmitt was narrow a shade and did no damage. Dorrance got in among the bunch in the danger zone.

Ferguson rolled into second shot—(applause)—and Malcolm drove, taking out one. (Applause.) Ferguson and Malcolm did not change the position—One for Hong Kong.

Fifteenth Head

Laing was a foot short, and Phillips rested on him. Laing was the same distance away, but Phillips was wide and heavy.

Basa was wide and heavy. Jessiman was short a yard or so and Basa was jack high. Jessiman crept in to the jack. (Applause).

Grimmitt went behind and Dorrance got second shot. (Applause.) Grimmitt tried to open it, but was as narrow as a whisk. Dorrance got a nice handy place behind—near Grimmitt's first wood.

Ferguson would not bend quick enough, but Malcolm went down but with a good length. Ferguson's second wood met with the same fate as his first and Malcolm did not affect the position—Two for Shanghai.

Sixteenth Head

Phillips was jack high, a bit wide, and Laing went in for shot. Phillips went behind a yard, and Laing was a wee bit in front.

Jessiman was a yard shy, and Basa got a counter. Jessiman got third place, and Basa was lazy.

Dorrance got the jack with a touch—(applause)—and Grimmitt improved Shanghai's position. Dorrance was the right shade through, and Grimmitt knocked in the first timber.

Malcolm was in the bunch near the jack. Ferguson disturbed the position, but the visitors still lay. Malcolm did nothing, and neither did Ferguson—One for Shanghai.

Seventeenth Head

Phillips was a trifle through, narrow, and Laing was likewise on

Hot Weather Indigestion

Its Reason, and Why

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Cure It

The hot season of the year is the time when people find themselves troubled most with indigestion. The reason is that the debilitating heat thins and weakens the blood, the source from which all parts of the body derive strength to carry on their work, and thus the stomach and other digestive organs become starved and weakened.

When the process of digestion goes wrong food begins to poison the system instead of feeding it, and very soon symptoms of ill-health manifest themselves, in the form of headaches, vertigo, flatulence, spots before the eyes, loss of appetite, abdominal pains, depression, nervousness, undue tiredness, and in other ways.

To correct matters, and to get the health back to normal, the only proper method of treatment is to restore the blood to a rich, red, healthy condition, and this can best be done by means of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, the most perfect of all blood tonics.

A short course of these Pills will not only tone up the blood and banish digestive troubles, but it will also impart new vitality to your whole system.

So, if your digestion is giving you trouble, or if you are feeling weak, depressed, run down, be wise and begin taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills at once. All chemists sell them; $1.50 per bottle, 99 for 6 bottles.

SATURDAY'S SOLUTION.

SYMPATHETIC CONSIDERATION.

The term "Sympathetic Consideration" when it falls from the lips of an official member of this Legislative Council is about equivalent to the time played by the old man to his sick cow just before it handed in its checks.

So he took down his fiddle and played her this tune.

Consider, good cow, consider! This is not the time for grass to grow!

Consider, good cow, consider!

SOUTH CHINA A.A.

TENNIS LEAGUE VICTORS ENJOYABLE "AT HOME" COMPLETE SUCCESS

The South China Athletic Association lived up to their status on Saturday afternoon, when they defeated (not without a struggle or two) three separate clubs representing the Rest of the League at an "At Home" held on their courts at King's Park, in commemoration of their victory in the "C" Division of the Hong Kong Tennis League, when entering the league for the second time, the "Athletics" very deservedly secured the Shield.

The "At Home" was a complete success, there being quite a large gathering, which included many ladies. Mr. M. K. Lo, President of the South China Athletic Association was also present.

The Prizes

Following tea, Mr. M. K. Lo, the President, was called upon to present prizes to members of the successful Athletic tennis team, who had participated in games during the season. These were: Messrs. Ng Kam-chun, Choy Yung-fai, Ip Kai-to, Mow Yik-kwan, Ma Chiu-chung, Ng Sau-keung, Chao Chiu-ong, and Chan Hip-wo.

The "C" Division Shield was presented to the Captain of the team, and applause and cheering.

INTERPORT LAWN BOWLS

the other hand, Phillips lay a foot behind the jack, but Laing was a long-way short and narrow. Jessiman was a yard shy, but Basa trailed the jack and his side lay. Jessiman was again shy, and Basa went through.

Dorrance put in "a Shanghai one" for shot—(applause)—but Grimmitt was lazy. Dorrance found timber, and Grimmitt, from a wick rested on the first woods—almost a measure!

Malcolm was a shade short; and Ferguson went well through. Malcolm tried a block, and Ferguson ineffectually tried to put the jack in the ditch—One for Shanghai. Score: 15-15.

Eighteenth Head

Phillips's first wood went to the ditch and Laing was a yard behind. Phillips got a beauty on the jack. (Applause). Laing took the jack. (Applause).

Jessiman next trailed the jack—(applause)—but Basa found the ditch. Jessiman was shy. Basa was well through.

Dorrance lay in a handy position. Grimmitt got a wee rub and went to the ditch. Dorrance was far too wide. Grimmitt had another wick and went to the ditch again—Shanghai lying three.

Malcolm put in a good block. Ferguson was narrow. Malcolm was jack high, a bit wide. Ferguson saved after a wick from a front wood. (Applause)—Shanghai one.

Nineteenth Head

Phillips's first wood was a shade heavy but Laing was miles short. Phillips was jack high, although a bit wide. Laing was short.

Jessiman was short, and Basa found the ditch. Jessiman again was short. Basa rested on the jack. (Applause).

Dorrance just failed to get a rub off Basa, but Grimmitt was a full yard short. Dorrance drove and knocked in his own wood. Grimmitt was steamy and went to the ditch.

Malcolm drove without effect. Ferguson went a yard behind. Malcolm took out one of his own woods with a heavy one. Ferguson put in a counter—Three for Hong Kong.

Twentieth Head

Laing lay close on the jack, but Phillips was a bit wide with a perfect length. Laing trailed the jack, and lay a trio. (Applause). A splendid trail by Phillips gave him shot. (Applause).

Basa was short. Jessiman was over a yard through. Basa bumped up the front woods—no change. Jessiman got in for shot. (Applause).

Grimmitt knocked in his own bowls for shot. (Applause). Dorrance sent in a heavy one, scattering some, but not changing the position. Grimmitt sent in another "one of the best." Dorrance smashed up everything.

Ferguson was wide—on the tape—Malcolm nearly drew the shot—(applause)—and Ferguson was fearfully short. Malcolm was a slight dash heavy—One for Hong Kong.

Twenty-First Head

To an extra short head Laing went jack high, a bit wide. Phillips went through a yard, and Laing was a foot away. Phillips drew the shot!

Basa was short and narrow. Jessiman was very short and Basa was heavy. Jessiman went through to the back.

Grimmitt tipped in a Shanghai wood behind and Dorrance was a couple of feet behind. Grimmitt drew the shot. (Applause). Dorrance had hard lines indeed, just going past Grimmitt's short wood.

Ferguson took the jack for another shot. Malcolm got wood with his first. Ferguson put in still another shot. (Applause). Malcolm drove and took the jack. (Applause)—Shanghai 1.

LAWN-BOWLERS GATHER AT CONVIVIAL PARTY

INTERPORT DINNER

The interport lawn bowls game was played and lost, but our Shanghai players were not downhearted. In fact, they were in the best of spirits on Saturday night at the Interport Dinner given in their honour at the Peninsula Hotel. A hundred people were present, presided by the Hon. Mr. W. T. Southern, C.M.G. (Officer Administering the Government) and also President of the Hong Kong Lawn-Bowls Association.

The function was characterised by conviviality, and the musical items rendered by Lieut. Musson and Major Tuke were received with loud cheers. Playing on a piano and the banjo respectively, these two gentlemen delighted the guests with snappy pieces of American songs. Mr. S. Gray also sang.

After the loyal toast had been duly honoured, the Hon. Mr. Southern, in proposing the toast for the Shanghai Lawn Bowls Association said that it was only about half a season ago that he first carried the wood in his hand. Little did he think that he would occupy the position of President and be making a speech at an interport bowls dinner.

An Ardent Supporter

The speaker added that it only went to show what opportunity could be a bowler yet, he was nevertheless an ardent supporter of the game. The game itself was most fascinating and charming. It was an ideal game for summer when the temperature was hovering around 90 degrees and the humidity somewhere in the neighbourhood of 98.

Sad to say, the game had been much libelled. It had even been whispered that bowlers were like thieves—they attained their ends by devious means and did not keep to the narrow and straight path. It had also been said by some circle that the game was ideal for men with pear shape bodies. (laughter). However, bowling had become very popular and the popularity was probably due to the fact that refreshment was supplied at both ends of the rink.

One of the Best

Speaking on the interport game, Mr. Southern said that it was his pleasure to have witnessed the best or one of the best games seen in the Colony. It was a tussle between two fine teams, and if he had been correctly told, that the only game as close was the one in 1926 played in Shanghai. The score was also 19-17, but it was the other way about.

He also praised Mr. Malcolm on his excellent skipping, which was most thrilling to witness. He was, however, not sorry that Hong Kong had won. He further hoped that when the cup would make its voyage to Shanghai next season, Hong Kong would bring it back with them.

Been Cared For

Responding, Mr. Malcolm said that they were all very thankful for the hospitality shown them. In Shanghai they were used to be cared for by the amahs, but during their short sojourn here, they had been most ably looked after by Messrs. Grimmitt and Laing.

The last occasion he was here, the honour of entertaining them was given to the "Taiwan Club" of Hong Kong. This time it was different. They had the Officer Administering the Government presiding at the dinner and it was most gratifying to know, when they landed, that they could play a game on the lawn at Government House and then to dine there in the evening.

The speaker then congratulated the Hong Kong team on retaining the ashes, and congratulated Mr. Ferguson on the able way he had skipped his team.

The Shanghai flag and four silver Association spoons were then handed over to Mr. Ferguson, the Hong Kong skip.

Mr. Ferguson suitably responded and handed the visiting skip the Hong Kong Association spoons as mementoes of the occasion.

Mr. R. P. Phillips then proposed a toast to the Hong Kong Lawn Bowls Association. He congratulated the local Association on having as its President one who was so high up in the affairs of the Colony. The speaker then went on to say that four years ago, he had remarked that the interport game should be decided after three matches had been played. It was a mistake that they should be asked to play so many clubs and then only to play one game for the interport honours. It would certainly have been more interesting if three games were played and each game to be played on different greens.

A Lengthy Speech

Mr. A. O. Brawn replied in a lengthy speech in which he mentioned that he was sorry at not seeing his old friend, Mr. Aitkenhead, on this visit. He hoped that the visitors on their returning to Shanghai would convey to Mr. Aitkenhead the fact that his name was a household word in the bowling circles of Hong Kong. The speaker then traced the history of interport lawn bowls games as far back as 1918.

Mr. B. Wylie then toasted the guests, and in reply Mr. R. Sutherland said that research show that the only authentic record of arrival of visitors to a bowling ceremony was away back somewhere in 1688 when Sir Francis Drake was skipping a team in which Lord Henry Seymour, Willie Winter, Lord Howard, and others were playing. History was very vague as to what actually transpired on that memorable afternoon, but it would seem that a messenger arrived all hot and bothered from the Admiralty and "panted" out that the Spanish Armada was in sight and suggested Drake should put his coat on and come right away, at which he would seem to have replied—

Look here can't I have a quiet game of bowls with my friends without being bothered by Spaniards and Armadas,—go and give them some onions or a monkey and organ to play with, can you not see we're just lying the shot. Seymour here is second wood; well guarded, and we've only got three more heads to play.

Bowling was not a sport which roused the passions, rather the reverse, as even the terms used during the game clearly indicate. The skips who pleaded with us to do our best continually coaxed us to "Rest on the face this yin"; to "Lay against the cheek of that yin." Could anything be more beautiful? We were asked to promote, to "guard", to "Come through the port," presumably to safety, almost terms of endearment, one might say, permeated with the milk of human kindness.

However, what the skip says to us in the pavilion after the match does not come, as the within the scope of my address.

"And so, gentlemen, on behalf of the guests, I thank you for this excellent evening's entertainment."

COAL MARKETS

NEED FOR A GREATER TRADE FREEDOM

REDUCTION OF TARIFFS

London, Saturday.
In a speech at Edinburgh last night, of President of the Board of Trade, Mr. William Graham, emphasised that as a result of the agreement reached at The Hague, Italy guaranteed to order one million tons of coal per year from Britain for three years at best British export prices. This was new business and it was hoped it would be the means of enabling coal exporters to re-establish themselves in other parts of the Italian market.

If German financial recovery was maintained, there would be no deliveries in kind after that period. Only in the event of a breakdown in cash transfer could they be restored. During recent years there had been little or no variation in the world in connection with European output of coal, which practically corresponded with the demand. European coal-producing countries, Britain included, had therefore to make the best arrangement they could for allocation of supplies in the available market.

Definite Contribution
To that end The Hague agreement made a definite contribution, if only indirectly. More definite steps were taken in the Assembly of the League. The immediate object, must be to secure international agreement in working conditions, including better wages, and other elements. Steps have now been taken to convene at Geneva a Conference of Governments, coalowners, and representatives of mines for the express purpose of preparing a way, if possible, for an international convention on this subject.

In all probability, agreement regarding working hours in Europe would be easier to achieve than agreement regarding wages, but an understanding regarding hours would contribute materially to the solution of at least part of the British problem in coal.

Proceeding, he emphasised the need for greater trade freedom in the interests of the speedy recovery of Europe. He recognised that, at this stage, on the political side, much difficulty attended the proposal for a United States of Europe. He believed, in the interests of practical politics, with definite proposals in the tariff field.

General Plan
The plan at Geneva had been to secure agreement that, for a certain period ahead all countries would agree at least not to raise existing tariffs. The next step was to secure as much reduction of existing tariffs as was possible.

That might be achieved by agreement between individual countries, or in groups of countries, such as agricultural implements, which linked factory and field. A declaration at Geneva had been made after the interchange of views with Empire representatives, though they were not, of course, bound by the statement of the Governments' case.

There was no suggestion of European federation or agreement by way of retail or counterblast to the United States of America. Policy of that kind could only be a great work in which the Prime Minister was now engaged in America.—British Wireless Service.

ARMED ROBBERS AT YAUMATI

SHOT BY POLICE

OTHERS ARRESTED AT THIEVES' RENDEZVOUS

BLOOD MARKS CLUE

A full confession of his participation in the armed robbery early yesterday morning, at 859, Canton-road, Yaumati, was made by Tong Sze-pui, shortly before his death a few hours after being shot down by a Policeman. The robber also told the Police of the rendezvous where he was to have met his conspirators and this information resulted in the arrest of three men who will be, it is believed, charged before the Police Magistrate in Kowloon.

Thrilling Hunt
Another fact discovered to-day in connection with the thrilling hunt in the streets of Yaumati is that a second fugitive was hit by a round from the revolver of the pursuing constable, P.C. 498C, Li Ming. This man was still at large up to a late hour last night, having left blood marks in several places where he is suspected to have slowed down during his flight.

It was about 4.30 a.m. that one of the women inmates of the shop of a firewood merchant in Cantonroad raised the alarm after a gang of five men had secured admission and begun to loot in the usual manner. One of the robbers was seen to have a knife but no firearm is mentioned in the victims' report. Only a pair of gold-on-rattan bangles was stolen, the gang retreating hastily, three by the front door and two by the back.

On duty at the corner of Hamilton-street and Canton-road, P.C. Li Ming heard the cries of "save life" and followed the group of three robbers towards Mongkok. Shouts of "stop" had proved of no avail. When the three had turned into Dundas-street, P.C. Li Ming opened fire with his revolver. One man was wounded in two places. Four other shots were fired but these did not have the effect of stopping the other two.

Resisted Arrest
The fugitive who had dropped down in Dundas-street was now rising. And, in spite of being "covered" by Li Ming's revolver (which was now empty), he got up vigorously to resist arrest, using his electric torch as a weapon to fight with. Another Chinese constable who was off duty now arrived on the scene and helped to make the solitary capture.

One of the bullets found its way through the show case of a Chinese wine-shop, piercing the glass and entering a glass jar which contained samshu flavoured with California lemon. This was picked up by a Pressman from the heart of one of these lemons in the bottle!

Mr. D. Burlingham, Deputy Superintendent of Police, Kowloon,

PREMIER IN CAMP

SPENDS WEEK-END ON HOOVER'S ESTATE

HEART TO HEART TALK

New York, Yesterday.
Mr. MacDonald's speech in the City-Hall on Friday was heard by millions over the wireless and caught universal imagination.

The "New York Times," among other tributes, says the speech had the spirit "of goodwill and aspiration pulsing through it," and hearers of the speech got "an almost unequalled thrill."

The "Herald and Tribune" says "Mr. MacDonald's language was more direct, more heartfelt, and more tinged with religious feeling than we are accustomed to hear from eminent men engaged in the esoteric mysteries of diplomacy. Our hopes for the Naval negotiations were high before his arrival. They are surely no less so now."

Meagre Bulletins
Virginia, Yesterday.
Mr. MacDonald and President Hoover arrived at the President's fishing camp at Rapidan yesterday night. Mr. Hoover will certainly have Mr. MacDonald to himself for the week-end for the whole of the property is guarded by troops and marines who rigidly exclude strangers. A number of journalists encamped in the little village of Orange, about six miles away, have to satisfy themselves with meagre bulletins telephoned by the President's secretary.

The camp, despite its remoteness, is equipped on modern lines with electricity, baths, telephones, hot water, and electric refrigeration.

Surrounded by scenes of great natural beauty, the two statesmen may be pictured sitting in a living-room sixty feet long with a fireplace constructed of fifty tons of rock with marvellous countryside outside dropping far into the valley below.

At Hoover's Camp
Washington, Saturday.
President Hoover and Mr. Ramsay MacDonald are spending the week-end at Mr. Hoover's camp on the Rapidan River in the Blue Ridge Mountains, Virginia.—Reuter's American Service.

No Formality
Washington, Saturday.
The meeting of Mr. MacDonald and President Hoover was characterised by a complete absence of stiffness. The Prime Minister accepted the President's invitation to spend several days at White House.

Washington, Yesterday.
Following on the discussions between Mr. MacDonald and President Hoover at Rapidan last night, invitations to the five Power conference will be issued from London on October 7.—Reuter's American Service.

Secret Debate
Washington, Yesterday.
Speculation is rife as regards the secrets which President Hoover and Mr. MacDonald debated in seclusion at their log cabin, but it is generally inferred from the decision to issue invitations to the London conference that Great Britain and the United States are agreed upon naval disarmament.

President Hoover and Mr. MacDonald spent three hours together alone yesterday morning and resumed deliberations in the afternoon in the presence of their secretaries. It is significant that Mr. MacDonald is meeting on Wednesday Senator Borah, Chief of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, who has hitherto been one of the most strenuous opponents of the Anglo-American naval discussions. He is very adamant as regards Britain's claims to uphold and search neutral ships in wartime.—Reuter's American Service.

was on the scene early and a large number of officers took part in the hunt. It was then found that a second man had been wounded, that he had halted two or three times while running and that pools of blood had collected where he had done so, but "was still nevertheless out of custody."

The man captured was removed to the Kowloon Hospital. He collapsed during the day but, in the afternoon, made a statement shortly before succumbing to his wounds, soon after 4 o'clock. Detective Inspector C. P. Fallon forthwith executed a raid on a mah jong club on the 2nd floor of 823, Reclamation-street, where three men were arrested and one of the bangles recovered.
